FIFTY-SECOND CONGRESS.

Monday.—In the Senate the consular and diplomatic appropriation bill was laid before the senate, but was temporarily laid aside, in order to permit Mr. Vest to address the senate on the resolution heretofore introduced by him to discharge the finance committee from the further consideration of the bill to place wool on the free list and to bring it before the senate for action. After discussing the resolution the senate adjourned without action.

This was a "red-letter" day in the House. Seven important measures were passed under suspension of the rules. Among the measures passed were the Anti-Opioid bill, the resolution placing the River and Harbor and the Naval Appropriation bills in conference, the resolution for the purchase of a site and the erection of a pedestal for a statue to General Sherman; bills admitting New Mexico and Arizona as States and finally the Legislative, Executive and Judicial Appropriation bills. Mr. McMillin offered a resolution for the adjournment of Congress on Saturday, July 12, which was referred to the Committee on Ways and Means, and at 2:10 p. m. the House adjourned.

Tuesday.—The Senate passed the Diplomatic and Consular Appropriation bill. The following changes were made: Emergency fund from $20,000 to $50,000; salaries of Consuls General at London, Paris, Havana and Rio de Janeiro, from $5,000 to $6,000, and Bureau of American Republics, from $25,000 to $30,000. The following missions omitted by the House were restored: Honduras, Venezuela, Bolivia, Ecuador. For a continental railway survey, $65,000, and $50,000 to relocate the existing frontier line between the United States and Mexico west of the Rio Grande river, were appropriated. At 1:15 p. m. the Senate adjourned until tomorrow.

The House had a brief session to-day. An urgent deficiency bill, appropriating $7,674,000 for pensions and $14,000 for contingent expenses of the House, was passed. Bills were also passed establishing weather bureau stations at the mouth of the Hudson, Bay Islands Lake Huron, and ceiling lands to the city of New Bedford, Mass., for a public park. The bill forfeiting land grants opposite unconstructed roads at the time limited by the granting acts, occupied the remainder of the day, and without any action at 4:45 the House adjourned until tomorrow.

Wednesday.—In the Senate the pension deficiency bill was referred to the Committee on Appropriations. The Senate at 1:45 adjourned until tomorrow.

The House went into a committee of the whole to consider the agricultural appropriation bill, and after reporting a few amendments, the committee reported, and the House adjourned.

Thursday.—The Senate was in session to-day 80 minutes, but a good deal of business was transacted in that brief space of time. The urgent deficiency bill, appropriating over $7,000,000 for the present fiscal year, was passed without record. The bill for the general appropriations, the legislative and the agricultural, came over from the House and were referred to the committee on appropriations, and the two bills for the admission of New Mexico and Arizona as States were also referred to the committee on territories. Then the Senate adjourned until Monday.

In the House to-day the floor was accorded to the Committee on the Judiciary. Mr. Cleveland of Alabama called up, and was passed, a bill modifying the revised statutes so much as to dispense with proof of loyalty during the War of the Rebellion as a requisite to being registered or admitted to the pension roll of any person who otherwise would be entitled to pension, nor shall proof of loyalty be necessary in any application for bounty land where the proof otherwise shows that the applicant is entitled thereto, provided that no soldier restored or admitted to the pension roll shall receive any back pay or bounty land. The bill was passed by a vote of 100 yeas and 90 nays. The bill for the admission of New Mexico and Arizona as States was also passed. The House then passed a bill for the relief of the United States, and authorized the Court to appoint counsel. Adjourned.

Friday.—Senate not in session. In the House nothing was accomplished, and the House, after a short session, adjourned until tomorrow.

Saturday.—Senate not in session. The House transacted only routine business and after a short and unimportant session adjourned until Monday.

WORLD'S FAIR NOTES.

PENNSYLVANIA intends to make a horticultural exhibit which will surpass anything of the sort ever made.

ALL material for the Maryland building will be taken to Chicago free of cost by the Baltimore & Ohio Railway.

MORE than $7000 worth of granite and other building material has been donated for the Maine World's Fair building.

AN exhibit from Syrian women, consisting chiefly of beautiful and costly embroidered robes, will be on display at the World's Fair, and will be managed by the Board of Lady Managers at Chicago.

THE women of Belgium will be represented at the Exposition by an exhibit. A woman's committee, with the Queen as patroness, has been selected to have charge of the matter.

THE magnitude of the French exhibit at the Exposition can be surmised from the fact that in the calculations as to its transportation to Chicago it is estimated that it will aggregate fully 3000 tons.

A. B. DE GUERVILLE, who was commissioned to go around the world and give illustrated lectures on the Exposition, has written from Japan that so great is the interest in the Fair that he rarely fails to talk to full houses.

"THE eighth and greatest wonder of the world" is what the World's Fair building and grounds, even in their present incomplete condition, are pronounced by Major Woods, Executive Commissioner of the Connecticut World's Fair Board.

In lighting the World's Fair 22,622 incandescent lamps of 16-candle power each will be required, according to present estimates. The contract for lighting and maintaining these lights has just been let to George Westinghouse, Jr., for $359,000.

THE Exposition is deriving quite a revenue from the visitors whose curiosity prompts them to see the grounds and the wonderful buildings now approaching completion. An admission of twenty-five cents is charged, and on single days the number of visitors has exceeded 14,000.

THE California Bee Keepers' Association is preparing a notable exhibit for the Fair. Besides honey and bees, the exhibit will include pressed flowers of all the different honey flora, specimens of the birds and insects which are the enemies of bees, models and photographs of apiaries, and novelties in the shape of production distinctive to California, especially in the line of beeswax and foundation.

JAMES DREDGE, of the British royal commission, recently passed a vacation at Venice, and in that ancient and historic city found great interest shown in the World's Fair, particularly among the manufacturers of the exceptionally beautiful glassware for which the city is celebrated. In the lace and embroidery industries also careful preparations are being made to send a splendid exhibit to the Fair.

THE German Government is willing to loan a magnificent collection of its works of art to the World's Fair, but the loan of such articles must be from the German Government to the Government of the United States. The German Government proposes to deliver every article to the United States Consul-General at Berlin as the representative of this Government, and will look to it for the careful transportation, safe protection and certain return of every such article. It is believed that there will be trouble in inducing the United States to comply with the conditions specified.

Strange if True.

GOLD IN GEORGIA.

Where it is to be Found in Paying Quantities.

A HIGH DEPOSIT DISCOVERED NEAR DALHOUSIE, GA.—HOW THE GOLD IS SECURED.

Great excitement prevails in the gold belt of North Georgia, and mineral property is rapidly being "gubbed" up by capitalists and mining men from the North and West. The whole gold belt, and particularly that immediately about Dahlonega, promises this year to be the scene of gigantic energy in mining operations, the like of which has not been witnessed since the early days in California.

This tremendous revival of an industry which has been prosecuted in a listless sort of way for upwards of fifty years in this field, is occasioned by the result of certain experiments recently completed on a large scale, in the concentration and subsequent reduction by chlorination, of the metallic particles contained in nearly all of the ores of this camp. These experiments have demonstrated that the old processes in vogue saved only a small percentage of the actual value of the ores, and that by the introduction of methods long practiced in the west, but, strangely enough, never before tried here, many mines before regarded as of little value, can be worked at enormous profits. The ores are all more or less sulphureous, and increase in sulphur as well as gold as depth is attained. Some of the richest ore the writer has ever seen came from water level and below, but contained so much sulphur that the stamp mill process alone would not save the gold from it. The new process introduced does this most effectively and have the virtue of being inexpensive and readily applicable to the mills now in use. At a point about three miles from Dahlonega, on the Calhoun Belt, one of the best great gold-bearing belts of Lumpkin County, an old mine has been reopened and some wonderfully rich deposits of gold quartz and gravel were discovered. One small spot is reported to have yielded $4000 in three days' work of two men, while the whole product of the mine, under crude operations, entirely without machinery, is estimated at upward of $60,000.

The mine covers one whole land lot of 40 acres, and the gold belt, over 100 feet wide, extends entirely through the lot. The work has, so far, mainly been done on about two acres, and the rest of the lot has only been prospected sufficiently to show the gold veins continuing all the way across. One shaft has been sunk about 60 feet, on an incline in the belt, and the ore taken from it yielded an average of $6 per bushel, or at the rate of about $120 per ton in free gold.

A party of Atlanta gentlemen have purchased this property, lot 523-150, District 1st Section Lumpkin County, and named it the Bertha C. Mine. A corporation has been organized to work this mine, chartered by the State of Georgia, as the Atlanta Gold Mining Company, with a capital stock of $100,000, divided into shares of $10 each, fully paid up and non-assessable. The company proposes to put in reduction works of the most approved machinery to save the full assay value of the ore and to conduct the mine and mill upon strict business principles. $50,000 of the capital stock has been placed in the treasury of the company for the purpose of carrying out these plans and a portion of the same is now offered for sale in sums to suit purchasers at 50 per cent. of its par value, or five dollars per share.

The Southern Banking and Trust Company, one of the strongest financial institutions in the South, is the depository of the company and issues its stock. All orders for shares should be addressed to The Southern Banking and Trust Co., Atlanta, Ga.

Deafness Can't be Cured

By local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one cure, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by inflammation of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube gets inflamed you have a running sound or a perfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are cured by this method, which is nothing but an incision made in the mucous membrane.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of deafness (caused by catarrh) that we cure by taking Dr. Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.
